

The Blog: Live!

Karen Treiger, author, shares her trip to Poland

Sunday August 14, Tisha B'Av

5:00-6:15 PM

At Minyan Ohr Chadash

6721 51st Ave. S. Seattle

Sam, Esther, and their three children Fay, Shlomo, and Molly (taken about 1958).

The Goldberg Family with the Stys Family outside the barn where Sam and Esther hid (Taken 2016).

Karen Treiger, author of the blog soyouwanttowriteaholocaustbook.wordpress.com tells about her recent trip to Poland.

Sam was one of the 60 people to make it out of the Death Camp Treblinka alive. Esther hid in the forest and the barns of Righteous Gentiles for two years. They met after Sam escaped from Treblinka during the prisoner uprising there. They hid together for the next year until they were liberated by the Soviet Army.

The most incredible part of the journey back to Poland was locating and meeting the children and grandchildren of the Righteous Gentiles who saved them. Come and see videos and pictures of the trip and hear Karen tell of this inspiring story of death, survival, and love.